January 2, 2022

Now in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city in Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin engaged to a man whose name was Joseph, of the descendants of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. And coming in, he said to her, "Greetings, favored one! The Lord is with you." But she was very perplexed at this statement, and kept pondering what kind of salutation this was. The angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary; for you have found favor with God. And behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall name Him Jesus. He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High; and the Lord God will give Him the throne of His father David" (Luke 1:26-32 NASB).

Preaching Christ in 2022

The last two years have been difficult because of the coronavirus disease. The next few years are likely to be difficult because of its variants. Now is the right time to offer the real hope that comes from knowing Jesus.

January 2022 we will begin a yearlong study through the life of Christ. This is the perfect time to invite family and friends to hear about Jesus. Ask them to watch online or join us in person.

Jesus demonstrates God's love for all people and his desire to save them from evil.

Is there any hope of having honest, open spiritual conversations?

"I want to talk about my faith, but I don't know how—and I don't have all the answers."

"I'm afraid of coming off as pushy, judgmental, or hypocritical."

"When I tried to bring up Jesus, it made the relationship awkward."

If you've ever felt uncomfortable talking about your faith with people who believe differently—you're not alone. But it is possible to engage in open and honest spiritual conversations . . . without awkwardness! Jesus did this effectively, and when you learn from him, so can you.

When you look at the life and ministry of Jesus, you'll see nine different ways in which he engaged with people. These practices, or "arts," are skills you can learn that will naturally deepen your connections with others. When spiritual conversations become an everyday reality, you'll have a front-row seat as God changes people's lives (from back cover of The 9 Arts of Spiritual Conversations by Mary Schaller & John Crilly).

Purchase the book The 9 Arts of Spiritual Conversations by Mary Schaller & John Crilly and join us on January 9 at 5:00pm for a discussion about walking alongside people who believe differently. For more information, contact Chuck, 620-282-0658.
