God is our refuge and strength, A very ready help in trouble. Therefore we will not fear, though the earth shakes And the mountains slip into the heart of the sea; Though its waters roar and foam, Though the mountains quake at its swelling pride. Selah There is a river whose streams make the city of God happy, The holy dwelling places of the Most High. God is in the midst of her, she will not be moved; God will help her when morning dawns. The nations made an uproar, the kingdoms tottered; He raised His voice, the earth quaked. The LORD of armies is with us; The God of Jacob is our stronghold. Selah Come, behold the works of the LORD, Who has inflicted horrific events on the earth. He makes wars to cease to the end of the earth; He breaks the bow and cuts the spear in two; He burns the chariots with fire. "Stop striving and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted on the earth." The LORD of armies is with us; The God of Jacob is our stronghold. Selah (Ps 46:1-11 NASB).

Worshipping God in Spirit

God lives in a different realm. God is spirit making him invisible to the human eye (Jn. 4:24). Even though we cannot see him, he can see and hear us. He knows our thoughts even before we verbalize them. Here are some suggestions for worshipping the invisible God.

Study what the Bible says about God. The Bible reveals God's characteristics, personality, thoughts, and feelings. It informs us about his desire to be a father and savior. On some occasions, we hear so much about a person that when we meet in person, we already know a lot about them. Bible study enables us to mentally picture God's glory so that our hearts bow to him in adoration, praise, and honor.

Strive to limit distractions. You can minimize physical and mental distractions by sitting toward the front of the room. You are less likely to be disturbed by the movement of others if you sit in front of them. Arrive early and give yourself time to settle in, greet others, make a restroom visit, find a seat, and sit calmly for a minute prior to the beginning of worship service. Don't underestimate the benefits of getting to bed early and rising early.

Envision the throne of God in your mind. God is interested in your thoughts and emotions toward him. I find it helpful to use my imagination and visualize the congregation before the throne of God. Isaiah's vision and John's vision help me to do this (Is. 6:1-5; Rev. 4:1-11). When reading books, we use our imaginations to visualize scenes, characters, and actions. Worship is a time to use our minds to see the glory and wonders of God's throne.
