Marriage

Marriage is a legally and social sanctioned union between a man and a woman, that is regulated by laws, customs, and beliefs, that prescribe the rights and duties of the couple and accords status to their offspring. Marriage is more than a man-made custom. Marriage is a holy institution created and regulated by God (Gen. 1:26-28; 2:18-24).

God sets the rules for marriage, even if human courts and practices say otherwise. According to God, marriage is between a male and a female who make a public, lifelong commitment of fidelity to each other. God says that marriage is a union for mutual support and reproduction. God reveals His will for marriage through His invention of it (Mt. 19:4-7).

God forbids the violation of His design. God calls the departures from His will sins of adultery, fornication, incest, homosexuality, and bestiality. Each one is punishable by death (Ex. 20:14; Lev. 20; 1Cor. 6:9-11). Marriage makes children holy. Otherwise, they are illegitimate (Mal. 2:15).

Marriage is a divine institution. As God's saints, let's strive to keep marriage holy by righteous teaching and living (Heb. 13:4). Let's guard against the reasoning which justifies departure from God's sacred plan and purpose.
