At this time Peter stood up among the brothers and sisters (a group of about 120 people was there together), and said, “Brothers, the Scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit foretold by the mouth of David concerning Judas, who became a guide to those who arrested Jesus. For he was counted among us and received his share in this ministry” (Acts 1:12-17 NASB).

The Future Is Yours

Are you interested in fortune-telling? Lots of people want to know their future. They want to know who they might marry and if they will have children, where they might live, what job might be awaiting them, and when and how they might die. People seek out fortunetellers, cards, stars, crystal balls, and even the palms of their hands.

God does not condone fortunetelling. He expects us to trust our futures to His love, wisdom, and power (Dt. 18:9-12). He teaches us that eternity is the future which truly matters, and that our primary concern should be a solid relationship with Him (Mt. 6:33).

God has made you with a unique personality and skill-set. These unique characteristics will influence your choices in life. Your life is the combination of God's providence and your own freewill. Therefore, if God blesses you with a family, seek to lead that family in loving and serving God. Wherever you may choose to live and whatever you may choose to do, make sure that you seek God's glory.

There are a few people whom God calls for a specific purpose. For example, Moses wanted to be a shepherd, but God called Him to lead Israel. Most of us will have several possibilities from which to choose. Thus, your future is what you choose to make it.

Here's a little wisdom for that power which you have to shape your future... "The conclusion, when all has been heard, is: fear God and keep His commandments, because this applies to every person. For God will bring every act to judgment, everything which is hidden, whether it is good or evil" (Ecclesiastes 12:13-14).
