Trust in God to Carry You Through

And we know that God causes all things to work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose. What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who is against us? He who did not spare His own Son, but delivered Him over for us all, how will He not also with Him freely give us all things? Who will bring charges against God's elect? God is the one who justifies; who is the one who condemns? Christ Jesus is He who died, but rather, was raised, who is at the right hand of God, who also intercedes for us. Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will tribulation, or trouble, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword? Just as it is written:

“For Your sake we are killed all day long;

We were regarded as sheep to be slaughtered.”

But in all these things we overwhelmingly conquer through Him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord (Romans 8:28, 31-39 NASB).

Not Guilty

By Jay Kelley

At this, those who heard began to go away one at a time, the older ones first, until only Jesus was left, with the woman still standing there. Jesus straightened up and asked her, "Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?"

"No one, sir," she said.

"Then neither do I condemn you," Jesus declared. "Go now and leave your life of sin."

--John 8:10-11, NIV

What becomes obvious—though I admit to not seeing it for a very long time—is that this woman was penitent. Oh, she was guilty. John does not dispute that. In fact, he states it. She was caught in the very act!

I can see some of us right now, foaming at the mouth because of the betrayal and immorality of someone in the church today who would dare do such a thing!

How could that happen? How could David claim to be a man after God's own heart and do what he did with Bathsheba and Uriah? Oh, wait. David didn't claim to be a man after God's heart. God said he was. How can that be? How can we have such sinful people among God's people? Because—praise God—Jesus paid the price for every sin we have committed and will commit.

It is easy to see the warning in Jesus' words to her, especially in my favorite translation, the King James Version, which says, "...go, and sin no more." Jesus' words, however, are not as much a warning as an offer of hope. He is telling her, "You have been forgiven—you now have a reason to leave that life of sin."

That is what we should understand, too. We have hope! We have Jesus! We no longer need to sin. But what happens when we do? What happens when we keep sinning? I'm not talking about sinning because we want to; I'm talking about the man in Romans 7, who can't seem to help himself.

The answer is simple. God, through Jesus keeps on forgiving.

And so should we.

LTC News

There will be no LTC convention this year, so also no fund raiser. We still plan to have our annual Northside Bible Bowl Challenge some Sunday in May. The book to study is Revelation. We currently have 8 kids interested. Parents, if you have a child in grade 3-12 who wants to participate, and you haven't let me know yet, please contact me! We also can use a few more adults for their team. A great website to help study is <http://ltc.theseeker.org/>.
