Psalm 51

- Be gracious to me, O God, according to Your lovingkindness; According to the greatness of Your compassion blot out my transgressions.
- 2 Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity And cleanse me from my sin.
- 3 For I know my transgressions, And my sin is ever before me.
- Against You, You only, I have sinned
  And done what is evil in Your sight,
  So that You are justified when You speak
  And blameless when You judge.
- 5 Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity, And in sin my mother conceived me.
- 6 Behold, You desire truth in the innermost being, And in the hidden part You will make me know wisdom.
- 7 Purify me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.
- 8 Make me to hear joy and gladness, Let the bones which You have broken rejoice.
- 9 Hide Your face from my sins And blot out all my iniquities.
- 10 Create in me a clean heart, O God, And renew a steadfast spirit within me.
- 11 Do not cast me away from Your presence And do not take Your Holy Spirit from me.
- 12 Restore to me the joy of Your salvation And sustain me with a willing spirit.
- 13 Then I will teach transgressors Your ways, And sinners will be converted to You.

"Fool"

"I pity the fool" and "crazy fool" were B.A.'s favorite expressions. B.A. stood for "bad attitude." Mr. T played this character on the popular 80's television show: "The A-Team." It was common to hear people repeat these lines in jest with each other.

However, calling someone a fool is often done with a hurtful intention. Bible believers are sometimes called fools by sceptics who deny miracles and the existence of God.

Sometimes Christians refer to one another as fools because they disagree on various biblical interpretations. Each person believes that the other one is holding the wrong interpretation and is being deceived and naive.

Jesus cautions us against using insults toward one another. Jesus forbids us to demean each other. Here's what He said: "...whoever says, 'You fool,' shall be guilty enough to go into the fiery hell" (Mt. 5:22). In the context, anger and murder are akin to this verbal abuse.

Jesus calls us to have a spirit of patience, gentleness, and forgiveness (Gal. 5:22; Col. 3:12-14; 2 Tim. 2:24-26). There are many people who have been tricked and deceived by the devil. Our task is not to go around pointing them out with insults and slurs but to lead them out by teaching the truth in love.

LTC Update

I want to remind all participants to do what you can at home to prepare for the time that we can get together again. Remember to practice your parts for chorus and puppets!!! We will still do Bible Bowl. It may be tough trying to get a date when all will be able to do our own LTC Northside convention. My goal would be by the end of June if not earlier. Hang in there, practice, don't give up!!!
