Follow God for Heavenly Assurance

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever. (Psalm 23 KJV).

Too Good to Be True

“Lose weight while you sleep. No exercise. No dieting. All you must do is take this pill at bedtime.”

When I see ads like this one, I think to myself, “That’s too good to be true.” I want it to be real, but it is not.

Many people want their spiritual journey to be like one of these “too good to be true” weight loss programs. They want the forgiveness of sins and the hope of eternal life, but they do not want to change their current lifestyle. The ad might read something like: “Have a happy life. Go to heaven. No change. No effort. Just believe in God’s goodness.”

I want it to be true, but I know it’s “too good to be true.” If you want to be where Jesus is, you must live like Jesus lived in submission to God’s will. Jesus obeyed God in all things, and God rewarded him with all things. If you want to live for eternity in heaven, you must surrender your will and be obedient to God the Father in all things.
