Volume 26 Issue 18

April 30, 2023

Then Peter said to her, “Why is it that you have agreed together to put the Spirit of the Lord to the test? Behold, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out as well.” And immediately she collapsed at his feet and died; and the young men came in and found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her beside her husband. And great fear came over the whole church, and over all who heard about these things (Acts 5:9-11 NASB).

Show Me Your Faith

What would you call a person who claims to be a member of the Scouts but never goes camping nor sells cookies? Would you call them a "Scout?" Likewise, what would you call a person who claims to be a follower of Christ but doesn't worship God or serve others? You might call them a hypocrite or liar or phony? Whatever you call such a person, it will be something derogatory because this person's conduct does not harmonize with his or her words.

The gospel of Jesus Christ is a message and a lifestyle. It is a faith that is shown by works. Here is a sample of what the gospel says about itself:

"... I will show you my faith by my works" (James 2:18).

"Let your light shine before men in such a way that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in heaven" (Matthew 5:16).

"If you continue in My word, then you are truly disciples of Mine" (John 8:31).

"Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father who is in heaven will enter" (Matthew 7:21).

Remember that your faith is being watched. God is watching. What will God call you... "good and faithful slave" or "wicked, lazy slave" (Matthew 25:21, 26)?
