Words Are Not Enough

How do we repay our mothers for their patience, understanding, help, advice, support, encouragement, prayers...? We certainly don't have enough money to adequately reimburse them, and words are not enough. Here are some things I know moms appreciate:

Honor her.

"Honor your father and your mother..." (Exodus 20:12). Give her thoughtful gifts, but also treat her with respect. Don't attack her with hands or words.

Obey her.

"Hear, my son, ...and do not forsake your mother's teaching" (Proverbs 1:8). Do what she tells you to do even when she words it like a suggestion. She has your best interests in her heart. She wants you to be safe and wise.

Praise her.

"Charm is deceitful and beauty is vain, but a woman who fears the LORD, she shall be praised" (Proverbs 31:30). Speak kindly to her and about her. Tell others how much you appreciate her selflessness and hard work. Let everyone know of her love, compassion, and skills.

Imitate her.

"For I am mindful of the sincere faith within you, which first dwelt in your grandmother Lois and in your mother Eunice, and I am sure that it is in you as well" (2 Timothy 1:5). Be like her in faith, love, and hope. Treat others with the same mercy and empathy she has given to you.

Love her.

"Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ also loved the church and gave Himself up for her" (Ephesians 5:25). Be humble and selfless to give her what she needs to shine.
