While He was still speaking to the crowds, behold, His mother and brothers were standing outside, seeking to speak to Him. Someone said to Him, "Behold, Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside seeking to speak to You." But Jesus answered the one who was telling Him and said, "Who is My mother and who are My brothers?" And stretching out His hand toward His disciples, He said, "Behold My mother and My brothers! For whoever does the will of My Father who is in heaven, he is My brother and sister and mother" (Matthew 12:46-50 NASB)

Dear Mom,

Thank you for making a difference in my life. Thank you for being there in every way: parent, taxi driver, domestic engineer, event planner, purchasing agent, gourmet chef, financial officer, nurse, beauty queen, spiritual advisor... These are only a few of the services which you selflessly provide.

Mom, what you do makes a difference. I flourish because of your nurturing. I know how to love because you love me. I know how to work hard because you taught me how to work. I know how to give because you give generously of yourself and your money. I know how to raise my own children because of your example.

Mom, what you do makes a difference. I know Jesus because you taught me about him. I know submission to Christ because you live it every day. I know God's love by your sacrificial affection toward me. Because of you, I know the real meaning of being a follower of Christ.

My life could have gone in several ways, some good and some bad. You've given your all so that I have the best opportunities for this life and the next. Thank you, Mom.

I will strive to be a difference maker just like you.

Chuck Marshall
