Psalm 23 1 The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. 2 He makes me lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside quiet waters. 3 He restores my soul; He guides me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. 4 Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no evil, for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me. 5 You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You have anointed my head with oil; My cup overflows. 6 Surely goodness and loving kindness will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever. World Bible School

Please Pray for our World Bible School teachers and their students so many may study the Bible and be saved through Jesus Christ. The May issue of The Voice of the Martyrs asks for prayers for Christians facing Islamic extremists.

LTC

Our kids entered a total of 52 events. Some were pre-convention. Join us for the awards presentation during our potluck today. LTC received another $270 in donation since the dinner. Thanks!

How Do You Apply "Faithfulness" in Your Life?

Consider these thoughts about applying the same standards of faithfulness to church activities that we expect in other areas of life:

- If your car starts 1 out of 3 times, do you consider it faithful?
- If the paperboy skips the Monday and Thursday editions, are they missed?
- If you fail to come to work 2 or 3 times a month, does the boss call you faithful?
- If your refrigerator quits for a day now and then, do you excuse it and say, "Oh, well, it works most of the time?"
- If your water heater greets you with cold water once in a while, do you call it faithful?
- If you miss a few mortgage payments a year, does the loan company say, "Oh well, 9 out of 12 isn't bad?"
- If you fail to attend Bible class and fail to worship God with His church 1 or 2 Sundays a month, would you be called faithful?
- If we expect faithfulness from other people and things, would not God expect the same... if not more... from us?
