And He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up toward heaven, He blessed the food and broke the loaves and He gave them to the disciples again and again to set before them; and He divided the two fish among them all. And they all ate and were satisfied; and they picked up twelve full baskets of the broken pieces of bread, and of the fish. There were five thousand men who ate the loaves. (Mark 6:41-44 NASB)

Be Zealous

If you have zeal for something, it is obvious to all. You talk enthusiastically about it. You happily schedule your day around it. You are passionate about it. People may say that you are fanatical and obsessed about it. This is true about the people who run, who lift weights, who garden, who pursue wealth, who cheer for a beloved sport's team, who own pets, who love music, and on and on.

In like manner, a person that is zealous about spiritual things is a light on a lamp stand that all can see. A zealous Christian strives against sin, attends worship assemblies, reads the Bible daily, prays several times each day, is devoted to pure speech, and talks to everyone about Jesus.

This world is a dark place. Don't let Satan blow out your light of enthusiasm. Be zealous! Are you zealous for God, for edifying one another, and for doing good deeds? If not, repent and be zealous (Tit. 2:14; 1Pet. 3:13; Rev. 3:19)
