Take Refuge in the Son

I don't like change. I've tried very hard to keep a normal routine during the COVID-19 quarantine. I continue to get up, eat breakfast, get dressed, and go into my study.

While a daily routine has given me some sanity, remembering that my God is the same yesterday, today, and tomorrow has kept me hopefully persevering... His grace and mercy have not faded... His love has not grown cold... His promises have not failed... His reign of power is not diminished.

There is no need to panic and no reason to doubt. Let's keep on trusting in our heavenly Father who is able to do far more than we can imagine.

Here the Psalmist give the play by play (portions of Psalm 2):

*Why are the nations in an uproar
And the peoples devising a vain thing?
He who sits in the heavens laughs,
The Lord scoffs at them.
Then he will speak to them in His anger
And terrify them in His fury, saying,
"But as for Me, I have installed My King
Upon Zion, My holy mountain.
You shall break them with a rod of iron,
You shall shatter them like earthenware."
Now therefore, O kings, show discernment;
Take warning, O judges of the earth.
Worship the LORD with reverence
And rejoice with trembling.
Do homage to the Son, that He not become angry, and you perish in the way,
For His wrath may soon be kindled.
How blessed are all who take refuge in Him!*
