1 Timothy 1: 15-17 15 It is a trustworthy statement, deserving full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, among whom I am foremost of all. 16 Yet for this reason I found mercy, so that in me as the foremost, Jesus Christ might demonstrate His perfect patience as an example for those who would believe in Him for eternal life. 17 Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen. (NASB)

"I Don't Love Her Any More"

A forty-year-old man suffering from the classic "mid-life crisis" sat down to talk to a preacher about his marriage problems. He explained how his marriage of twenty years was no longer satisfying or fulfilling. Finally, he reached the bottom line. "I just don't love her anymore," he said, "What can I do?"

After a brief moment of reflection, the preacher said decisively, "As I see it, you have only one option." The man perked up with anticipation. Was the preacher going to suggest a divorce? Would he finally be free to pursue the thrilling life-style of the younger generation? Would this be his chance to regain his fleeting youth? What was the preacher's advice? "It seems to me that the only thing for you to do is to repent and start loving your wife again."

So often we hear of married couples who complain that they have "fallen out of love." That's sad, but it happens. The real issue is: What do you do when you realize that such a situation exists? The Bible still says the same things that it has always said. Husbands are to "love your wives" (Eph. 5:25), and wives are to "love their husbands" (Tit. 2:4).

Please note that these are not merely suggestions, they are commands. To fail to love your mate is to commit sin. And sin always requires repentance if there is to be forgiveness. Be careful! Do not confuse COMMANDED love with the ooey goeey, silly infatuation of a teenager. It is far more than that. It is sacrificial love that seeks the interest of the one loved more than self. It is the kind of love that Jesus has shown us (Eph. 5:25).
