Watching You

Father, Dad, and Daddy are just a few loving names for an awesome and important position. What do these words mean to a child? The song "Watching You" by Rodney Atkins perfectly describes a child's point of view:

He said, "I've been watching you, dad, ain't that cool?
I'm your buckaroo, I wanna be like you
And eat all my food and grow as tall as you are
We got cowboy boots and camo pants.
Yeah, we're just alike, hey, ain't we dad?
I wanna do everything you do
So I've been watching you."

What do children learn from watching their fathers? They learn how to view God... women... work... entertainment... family... and life.

The next time you are watching a movie, talking to your wife, or telling a joke remember "I want do everything you do so I've been watching you."

Isn't that how we learn about our Father in heaven? We watch Him, so we can be just like Him. "I've been watching you, dad, ain't that cool? I'm your buckaroo, I wanna be like you... Yeah, we're just alike, hey, ain't we dad? I want to do everything you do so I've been watching you."

"See how great a love the Father has bestowed on us, that we would be called children of God; and such we are" (1 John 3:1).
