And they brought the boy to Him. When he saw Him, the spirit immediately threw him into convulsions, and falling to the ground, he began rolling around and foaming at the mouth. And He asked his father, "How long has this been happening to him?" And he said, "From childhood. It has often thrown him both into the fire and into the water to kill him. But if You can do anything, take pity on us and help us!" But Jesus said to him, "If You can?" All things are possible for the one who believes." Immediately the boy's father cried out and said, "I do believe; help my unbelief!" (Mark 9:20-24 NASB).

Attention Visitors

It was Thursday night and I sat alone in the guard room of our local jail. My Bible class had finished early, and I was waiting on the other groups to finish so we could leave together. Every person wishing to visit someone in the jail must pass through this room.

As I waited, I glanced over the signs which were posted to give visitors various warnings and cautions. One sign caught my attention because it was posted at least four different times in key locations. All the other signs were posted only once. Obviously, this was a message they wanted to make sure all visitors understood. What message do you think a jail would want to make sure it got across to its visitors? It wasn't about bringing in anything that could be used as a weapon. The sign read as follows:

Attention Visitors

No persons admitted unless properly dressed.

1. Shorts must be knee length.
2. No tank tops.
3. No short dresses.
4. No sun dresses.
5. No shirts with obscene language or pictures.
6. No see-through clothing.

Any person who cannot abide by these rules will be refused visitation. No exceptions.

Why would this be such an important notice to visitors of a jail? Obviously, they are aware that the way someone is dressed could have an adverse impact on the people they are charged with housing and controlling. They are aware of the problems that improper dress can create and they want to avoid them with the people for whom they are responsible.

Shouldn't Christians be even more concerned when it comes to the way they dress? Our dress is to portray an image of godliness. We should be concerned with the problems our dress may cause in the minds of others. Should a jail be more concerned with modesty than a Christian?
