The Lone Christian

Many children grew up loving to watch “The Lone Ranger.” He stood alone to serve and protect. Children grew up wanting to be like him—doing right all alone.

Some of these children have brought their “Lone Ranger” ways to the body of Christ. They do good, but they limit their association with the family of God to Sunday morning.

Let's not pattern our Christianity after a fictional character. Instead, let's follow the example and teaching of Christ. His manner of life was to be with people. Many of His commands require close interaction with His disciples:

Be at peace with one another (Mk.9:50)

Love one another (Jn. 13:34)

Serve one another (Gal. 5:13)

Comfort one another (1Th. 4:13)

Accept one another (Rom. 15:7)

Admonish one another (Rom. 15:14)

Greet one another (Rom. 16:16)

Wait for one another (1 Cor. 11:33)

Have the same care for one another (1 Cor. 12:25)

Show tolerance for one another in love (Eph. 4:2)

Look out for the interests of others (Phil. 2:4).

We are sheep in the flock of God. Let's embrace our individual duties to the community of God.
