Let's Laugh a Little

Most of the occurrences of the word "laughter" in the Bible have a negative connotation of mocking or ridicule. But the Scriptures also encourage us to enjoy life by adding laughter. Solomon wrote that there is a time for everything under the sun... "A time to weep, a time to laugh; A time to mourn, and a time to dance" (Eccl. 3:4). So, why don't we laugh a little and enjoy life to the fullest?

I love the oft-quoted poem:

Laugh, and the world laughs with you;
Weep, and you weep alone.
For the sad old earth must borrow its mirth,
But has troubles enough of its own.

Ella Wheeler Wilcox

When good things happen in our life, we may openly rejoice, as did the Israelites of old when they returned from Babylonian captivity:

*Then our mouth was filled with laughter
And our tongue with joyful shouting;
Then they said among the nations,
"The LORD has done great things for them."*

--Ps. 126:2

Laughter helps us to see the positive things in life. We choose how we approach each day by the attitudes we carry with us. While most of the world chooses to be sad, bitter, and negative toward life, we who serve the Lord can find good in all things. Remember the Proverb of Solomon: "All the days of the afflicted are bad, But a cheerful heart has a continual feast" (Prov. 15:15).
