Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Unto You I lift up my eyes. O you who dwell in the heavens. Behold, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their master, as the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress, So our eyes look to the Lord our God, until He has mercy on us. (Ps. 123:1-2)

Greetings to everyone. How are you all doing? We are doing well. My eye is still healing after another surgery. My last visit with the doctor gave me a good report. We thank God for all of your prayers. You are truly a blessing. Today is a beautiful day to write my report. It is also the Lord's Day. We had an encouraging worship. Everyone is doing well.

Many times we go through challenging times. Often times we forget that God is in heaven. When we have struggles, we need to look up to God. God is not beneath us or at our level. He is above us. He is in control and all powerful. We also know that He is on His throne. God knows everything we go through. He is our Sovereign Lord, looking up to him in prayers.

Our doors are fully open for worship again for about four months. Our attendance is slowly climbing back up. The men continue to take turns leading songs. And the young men wait on the Lord's table. Also Ty and his sons help us cut weeds and tree branches on the church grounds. Ty is a member here. Also Randy, one of Irita's brothers helps us with plumbing, cutting wood and electrical work. He is always willing to help, when we need him. Our brother. Mike Sickeneger volunteered to help me while I went through my eye surgery. He preached for me. We are always glad to have Mike, his wife Mariann and grandson Michael worship with us. Mike is one of the elders from Farmington. We are so thankful for these men.

We had some visitors who came by to visit, encouraged us and prayed with them. It was nice to see Anne Ter Meer from Michigan. Also Deann and her daughter, Katy who are our longtime friends. They always help us and the church with their generous gift.

In closing, we thank God for all that you do, your continued prayers and monetary support toward this great work. We do the best we can to reach the lost souls and plant seeds. We love you all. May the peace of God be with you.

Phil & Irita James
