Exodus 34:6-8 6 Then the Lord passed by in front of him and proclaimed, "The Lord, the Lord God, compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in lovingkindness and truth; 7 who keeps lovingkindness for thousands, who forgives iniquity, transgression and sin; yet He will by no means leave the guilty unpunished, visiting the iniquity of fathers on the children and on the grandchildren to the third and fourth generations." 8 Moses made haste to bow low toward the earth and worship. Dear Northside,
 Thanks for all the food, well wishes and prayers. I am doing much better. I am truly blessed to have all of you as friends.
 Thanks again,
 Sandy A.

Have I told you today that I love you?!!
 How many ways are there to say "Thank You"? There must be a million ways but I can only think of one.
 "Thank you Lord, for all our richly blessed friends and family that are surrounding us with prayers.
 Love & Hugs,
 Vern, Cindy & Makayla

The Worst Could Be the Best

The worst thing that happens to you this year could wind up being the best thing to happen to you, for you are in the hands of a God who causes all things to work together for the good of those who love him (Rom. 8:28).

Being sold by his brothers was arguably the worst thing that ever happened to Joseph... "Truly we are guilty concerning our brother, because we saw the distress of his soul when he pleaded with us, yet we would not listen" (Gen. 42:21). However, by the end Joseph knew that the harm done by his brothers was for the best... "Now do not be grieved or angry with yourselves, because you sold me here, for God sent me before you to preserve life" (Gen. 45:5; 50:20).

Likewise, Jesus experienced the worst of days being betrayed, abandoned, tortured and killed (Jn. 18:1—19:30). But, the Father raised him up to be the author of our salvation (Heb. 2:10).

No one in their right mind desires hardship and suffering, but the one who trusts in the Father God remains open to unforeseen possibilities of being an instrument of God's goodness.
