Paul, an apostle (not sent from men nor through the agency of man, but through Jesus Christ and God the Father, who raised Him from the dead), and all the brethren who are with me, to the churches of Galatia: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ, who gave Himself for our sins so that He might rescue us from this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father, to whom be the glory forevermore. Amen (Galatians 1:1-5 NASB).

Letting Go of Hate

The world is full of anger and hatred. This can be seen in countries speaking out against one another, citizens who are discontent with their governments, churches that divide and neighbors who can't seem to get along with one another.

Christians cannot afford the luxury of hatred. We are to be "light" in a world of darkness so that our "good works" can be seen by the world (Matt. 5:16). But what if we become like the world in the way that we conduct ourselves? What if we constantly speak out against our government or we can't seem to get along with our neighbors? Or, even worse, what if we cannot get along with one another and we divide the church?

The point is, if we exhibit the characteristics of hatred, have we not become like the world? And, if we are like the world, then the "light" has been swallowed up by "darkness." Christians are to rise above the world. As "light" we are to show the world a better way of living... God's way.

So, let's determine that we are not going to harbor ill will toward anyone. And, whenever you let go of those hateful attitudes, it is liberating. Carrying hatred hurts no one except the one who bears that load... and what a heavy load it is. People lose sleep because of hatred and some develop physical ailments simply because their heart is full of hate. Following Jesus requires that we "love" even our enemies. Try it... you'll like it.
