But Ananias answered, “Lord, I have heard from many people about this man, how much harm he did to Your saints in Jerusalem; and here he has authority from the chief priests to arrest all who call on Your name.” But the Lord said to him, “Go, for he is a chosen instrument of Mine, to bear My name before the Gentiles and kings and the sons of Israel; for I will show him how much he must suffer in behalf of My name” (Acts 9:13-16 NASB).

World Bible School

- ♥ Since June we have received 133 students' lessons to be graded.
- ♥ Notified of one of the student's baptism.
- ♥ Ordered 16 Bibles to be sent to students who have completed the first 5 lessons.
- ♥ Several people have stepped in and adopted new students.

Please remember if you have packets - grade and return within 2 weeks. The students are waiting to get their next lessons.

This is a great way to reach out to the world with the gospel.

Let Mary Marshall know if you are interested in helping.

Pictures

Have you noticed that "some assembly required" no longer comes with written instructions? If there are any instructions at all, they are simple pictures. This saves the manufacturer the hassle of printing instructions in several languages. In theory, a child could build those bookshelves you just bought.

Centuries ago, Jesus built His church (Mt. 16:18; Acts 20:28). While He left detailed written instructions, He also left simple pictures of His church so that every future generation could build His church according to the original pattern. His pictures are of a farm, a vineyard, a family, an army, a nation, a kingdom, a temple, a sheepfold, and a human body. In these pictures, we see authority, obedience, relationship, combat, protection, organization, and love.

His instructions are so easy that a child can understand them. Let's read His instructions, look at the pictures, and be the church He purchased with His own blood.
