The Thirsting Soul Satisfied in God.

A Psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

God, You are my God; I shall be watching for You;
 My soul thirsts for You, my flesh yearns for You,
 In a dry and exhausted land where there is no water
 (Psalm 63:1 NASB).

Disaster Assistance

The Historic town of Lahaina, on the Hawaiian Island of Maui has been wiped off the map by devastating wildfire. Churches and individuals from Hawaii have helped us with funds for disaster work here on the mainland many times so let's help them in their time of need. You can donate to our work 2 ways.

Online at www.disasterassistancecoc.com or make check payable to:

Manners

Simon invited Jesus over for dinner. But when Jesus arrived, Simon was not polite to Jesus. Simon did not give Jesus water to wash His feet, a welcoming kiss, or anointing oil (Lk. 7:44-46). By withholding social norms, Simon insulted Jesus.

Christ instructs His followers to go above and beyond social etiquette. Jesus is our standard for how we treat one another. Jesus says to love one another "as I have loved you" (Jn. 13:34). He says to forgive each other as He has forgiven each of us (Col. 3:13). Manners will help us to be at peace with each other as Jesus has commanded (Mk. 9:50).

The following list of manners should be no problem for every member of God's family:

- If you open it, close it.
- If you unlock it, lock it.
- If you turn it on, turn it off.
- If you move it, put it back.
- If it's not yours, ask before you use it.
- If you borrow it, return it.
- If you use it, take care of it.
- If you break it, repair it.
- If you can't repair it, find someone who can.
- If you make a mess, clean it up.

Members of God's family are loving and serving each other. We are considerate toward one another. We are looking for ways to reduce the burdens rather than adding to them. Let's practice good manners toward each other.
