God is Here

Acts 17:27, 28 that they would seek God, if perhaps they might grope for Him and find Him, though He is not far from each one of us; for in Him we live and move and exist, as even some of your own poets have said, 'For we also are His children.'

Psalm 119:150-152 Those who follow after wickedness draw near; They are far from Your law. You are near, O Lord, And all Your commandments are truth. Of old I have known from Your testimonies That You have founded them forever. (NASB)

Is Jesus the center of your life? How often do you think about Jesus during the week? Do you discuss Jesus with anyone outside of church assemblies? Is seeking the kingdom of God and His righteousness your primary reason for living?

I ask these questions because even the preacher may forget Jesus. The preacher may prepare sermons and teach the Bible because it is his job. In other words, he does what he does because he is paid to do them. I hope the preacher works hard in preparation and delivers a persuasive message. Above all, I pray that he remembers to praise and give thanks to Jesus. I hope that the sermon and Bible teaching direct the listeners to give obedience and glory to Jesus.

A person may be living righteously, regularly attending assemblies, and even studying one's Bible daily. One may be doing everything that a good religious person should be doing, yet that same person may never have a thought about the one to whom he owes his life.

Let's not just busy ourselves with religion. Let's build our relationship with Jesus. Christianity is not just about doing righteousness. It's about the Lord Jesus Christ.

"For this reason also, God highly exalted Him, and bestowed on Him the name which is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee will bow, of those who are in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and that every tongue will confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father" (Philippians 2:9-11).
