Therefore I want the men in every place to pray, lifting up holy hands, without anger and dispute. Likewise, I want women to adorn themselves with proper clothing, modestly and discreetly, not with braided hair and gold or pearls or expensive apparel, but rather by means of good works, as is proper for women making a claim to godliness. A woman must quietly receive instruction with entire submissiveness. But I do not allow a woman to teach or to exercise authority over a man, but to remain quiet. For it was Adam who was first created, and then Eve. And it was not Adam who was deceived, but the woman was deceived and became a wrongdoer. But women will be preserved through childbirth—if they continue in faith, love, and sanctity, with moderation (1 Timothy 2:8-15 NASB).

Special Contribution on October 3

New Mexico Christian Children's Home is not making grocery pick ups this year. They have asked us to send a monetary gift in its place.

Encourager

There are plenty of grumblers and complainers in our society. Several talk shows and publications are devoted to opposing anything and everyone. Unfortunately, the attitudes of contention and conflict have infiltrated the church of God.

A brief investigation of God's word reveals a strong emphasis on encouraging one another.

Barnabas is praised for being an encourager. When a new convert came to Jerusalem and many were skeptical of him, Barnabas welcomed him and recommended welcoming him into the local fellowship of God's people (Acts 9:26-27). On another occasion, Barnabas saw the grace of God among the believers at Antioch and encouraged them resolutely to remain faithful to the Lord (Acts 10:23). Barnabas and Paul revisited church plants encouraging them to continue in the faith (Acts 14:22).

The Hebrew writer exhorts followers of Christ to encourage one another daily lest anyone of them be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin (Heb. 3:13). He also encouraged the Christians to participate in worship assemblies and be encouraged to love and good deeds (Heb. 10:24-25).

We are called to be encouragers. When we encourage each other, we are true followers of Christ and light in our community. Leave the complaining to the children of the evil one. We have inspiring, cheering, and motivating to do.
