Housekeeping

Building tidying, purging and rearranging:

Through the years we have accumulated many things that are not used anymore or are outdated. Some things we may have forgotten we have. So, over the next few weeks we will be cleaning out and reorganizing all storage rooms, nooks and crannies. Who knows what treasures we might unearth!

Teachers this would be a good time to clean out your classrooms as well.

Let Mary or Tricia know if you want to help!

This Week!

Learning from Rebels

Abraham promptly obeyed God and stands as the model of faith (Heb. 11:8). However, many of Abraham's descendants rebelled. Ten times on their way to the promised land, Israel rebelled against God (Num. 14:22). In subsequent years, God sent many prophets calling Israel to repent and return. But, the chosen son despised the Holy One of Israel and turned away from Him (Is. 1:2). Centuries later, Stephen found their hearts to be unchanged... "You men who are stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears are always resisting the Holy Spirit; you are doing just as your fathers did" (Acts 7:51).

While we may chide Israel for continual stubbornness, we should also recognize the opportunities for us to learn from their rebellion. Paul teaches Christians to learn from their disobedience and to NOT crave evil things (1Cor. 10:6). Recently, I've been wondering how things might be different if Israel had simply submitted to God. If Israel had just humbly obeyed God, we would not know about God's great patience and abundant mercy and continual love.

Fortunately for us, Israel was a rebellious son. On the one hand, it is sad, and I wish it had been different. But on the other hand, I am grateful for the insights their rebellion provides. Don't let their example be in vain. Don't put God the Father through the heartache of another rebellious child. If you have been a rebellious child, God continues to be hopeful, patient, and forgiving. Repent and return to him.
