Restarting Bible Classes

Have you heard? We are restarting Sunday morning Bible classes on October 4, 2020. Articles are being written over the next few weeks to inform you about the precautions we are taking to prevent the spread of COVID-19 and to encourage you and your family to participate.

We are restarting in stages. We are beginning with Sunday morning Bible classes. The following classes will not begin at this time but will be phased in at a future date:
Wednesday night children's Bible classes, 5th Sunday combined children's Bible study, Sunday children's church, and pre-class children's combined singing.

We are taking precautions—wearing masks, washing and sanitizing hands, disinfecting common touch points, promoting physical distancing, minimizing the sharing and handling of community items, encouraging those who have COVID-like symptoms to stay home (high temperature, coughing, shortness of breath, etc).

In addition, classes with larger numbers are being relocated to larger classrooms. The adult classes are helping by meeting in the auditorium. This will free up the fellowship hall and library for use as children's classrooms. The women's Bible class will be meeting in the old kitchen.

Your input is important to us. We want everyone to feel safe meeting together for Bible study. Please communicate your concerns and questions to one of our elders or the preacher. Bible study is the foundation of our spiritual growth, so we are doing our best to make our facilities safe for you.

Children's Change Bucket

This quarter's change collected ($211.06) will go to the New Mexico Christian Children's Home.

The change collected from October - December will go to the Magi Boxes. Thanks
