⁸ Deacons likewise must be men of dignity, not double-tongued, or addicted to much wine or fond of sordid gain, ⁹ but holding to the mystery of the faith with a clear conscience. ¹⁰ These men must also first be tested; then let them serve as deacons if they are beyond reproach. ¹¹ Women must likewise be dignified, not malicious gossips, but temperate, faithful in all things. ¹² Deacons must be husbands of only one wife, and good managers of their children and their own households. ¹³ For those who have served well as deacons obtain for themselves a high standing and great confidence in the faith that is in Christ Jesus. (1 Timothy 3:8-13, NASB).

Special Contribution on October 3

The Female Vessel

The potter creates and determines a useful function for each vessel. Likewise, God creates each human being and determines what role they will fulfill. In the church of God, females have many useful functions which bring glory to God the Creator.

She glorifies God when she repents and is immersed into water for the forgiveness of sins. Each time a girl dies to self, God is glorified. It is his wisdom and power that redeems her from sin and death. It is his grace which restores her to the glory she was given at creation. She glorifies her Savior and God when she lives in his righteous ways.

She glorifies God when she gives birth to children. Someone once said that without women, men would be quite scarce. The Creator has given women the unique and special ability to conceive and give birth. She keeps humans from extinction.

She glorifies God as a helper. Created with the purpose of helping, she fulfills an all-important role of support. There are countless examples of the importance of assisting. Team sports demonstrate the value of support staff and players. Winning is the result of a collaborative effort in which everyone is doing the job for which they were employed. God's church is no different (Eph. 4:16).

The church wins and is winsome when she glorifies her King. Let's honor our God by recognizing the honor he has given to women. Let's think about girls as God does... valuable and gloriously distinct.
