Consequences

Sinning has consequences (Genesis 3). Because of his role, the serpent crawls on the ground and eats dust (v. 14). Women give birth in agony (v. 16). The earth grows weeds (v. 18). Men work hard and die (v. 19).

If Adam and Eve had paused to think about the consequences of their choice, perhaps we would still be living in the Garden of Eden and walking with God. Eve did not consider what sin would do to her marriage. Adam did not care how sin would affect his everyday living. Neither thought about how their actions would impact future generations.

Humans have the ability to master sin... "If you do well, will not your countenance be lifted up? And if you do not do well, sin is crouching at the door; and its desire is for you, but you must master it" (Genesis 4:7).

When temptation knocks on your door, think about the consequences to yourself... to your loved ones... to future generations...
