But Jesus answered them by saying, “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Truly, truly I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. The one who loves his life loses it, and the one who hates his life in this world will keep it to eternal life. If anyone serves Me, he must follow Me; and where I am, there My servant will be also; if anyone serves Me, the Father will honor him” (John 12:23-26 NASB).

Out of Place

You might be that rare person who immediately returns everything to its proper place. However, the rest of us have food, dishes, clothes, shoes, books, jewelry, and toys scattered throughout our houses. Wherever we ate or took it off, there it lies. It's amazing and a bit embarrassing how fast things end up out of place.

It's not just things that get higgledy-piggledy. Our thoughts and priorities can also end up disorganized. I'd like to encourage you to do a little fall cleaning. Let's reorder our lives and priorities.

I recommend starting with your spiritual walk. Loving God should be number one on our to do list. It is, after all, the greatest commandment (Mk. 12:30). Life has a way of rearranging and redirecting our focus. There are times when the children need more attention, and other times when couples need to nurture their marriages. As we live our lives, we need to reorganize and put things back where they belong. Let's not procrastinate putting God back where He belongs.

God is our Creator and Savior. Our relationship with Him is the most important one. Let's clean up our lives and priorities. Let's put God back in His proper place.
