12 Reasons People Lose Interest In Sports

1. The coach never came to visit me.
2. Every time I went, they asked for money.
3. The people sitting in my row didn't seem very friendly.
4. The seats were very hard.
5. The referees made a decision I didn't agree with.
6. I was sitting with hypocrites—they talked and didn't watch the game.
7. Some games went into overtime and I was late getting home.
8. The band played some songs I had never heard before.
9. The games are scheduled on my only day to sleep in.
10. My parents took me to too many games when I was growing up.
11. I read the book on sports, I feel that I know all I need to know.
12. I don't want to take my children because I want them to choose for themselves what sport they like best.

I received this list over the internet, and I do not know who the author is. Nevertheless, I am provoked by the sarcasm. I don't know anyone who quit being involved in sports for any of these reasons. It does, however, sound like the reasons many people give for failing to attend worship and Bible study or for being inactive in the work of God's church.

Here's the truth: We don't let anything keep us from what we love, but we allow everything to keep us away from things for which we have no concern.
