“Therefore be on the alert, for you do not know which day your Lord is coming. But be sure of this, that if the head of the house had known at what time of the night the thief was coming, he would have been on the alert and would not have allowed his house to be broken into. For this reason you must be ready as well; for the Son of Man is coming at an hour when you do not think He will” (Mt 24:42-44 NASB).

Good Times and Bad

Life brings both good and bad days for us. We've known this to be true by experience. History reveals that this has always been the case with every generation. So, we are not surprised when we enjoy some really good days, and we should not be discouraged when the morning ushers in a not so bright day.

Christians can handle the responsibilities of the good times and the disappointments of the bad times because of the strength they have in their relationship with Christ. Paul says this best...

“...for I have learned to be content in whatever circumstances I am. I know how to get along with humble means, and I also know how to live in prosperity; in any and every circumstance I have learned the secret of being filled and going hungry, both of having abundance and suffering need. I can do all things through Him who strengthens me.”

--Philippians 4:11-13

Learning to be content is difficult for the world because it always wants more and more. But, for the Christian, it's a “no-brainer.” When we are focused on Christ and our relationship with Him... When we are looking forward in our earthly pilgrimage toward a heavenly home... When we realize the power of God in our lives... Then, it really doesn't matter if we have much or little in this realm. We are content with whatever a day brings... and with whatever struggles we must endure. That's because we know it is short-lived and we know that God is in control.

Life is good... every day!
