Now there were prophets and teachers at Antioch, in the church that was there: Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen who had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. While they were serving the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Set Barnabas and Saul apart for Me for the work to which I have called them." Then, when they had fasted, prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away (Acts 13: 1-3 NASB).

Dear brethren,

Greetings to everyone,

The Lord reigns, He is clothed with majesty; The Lord is clothed, He has girded Himself with strength. Surely the world is established, so that it cannot be moved (Psalm 93:1).

We surely have been blessed this summer. We had a bountiful crop. God is good. The weather is cooling down day by day. It feels nice and comfortable. We are preparing for winter. The church building has a wood burning stove for heating.

The Hogback congregation is doing well. The attendance averages about 25 people every Lord's Day. Everyone is trying to grow in the spirit. I am still preaching from memory. I listen to solar Bible lessons from Sunset School of Preaching. Listening to God's word has a lot of power and joy. It helps your spiritual journey.

I was asked to speak at Shiprock Church of Christ gospel meeting recently. My lesson was on Psalms 93. Many people say, "There is no God." But our God is always ruling in His majestic robe with strength. Our God has no beginning or end. In His word it is fully confirmed for us that His truth will stand forever. And spiritually we are building our faith on His word. It is worth worshipping and serving God.

We are very grateful to the Eastside Church of Christ in Farmington who has donated twenty-nine cushioned chairs and two tables to us. Brothers, Dave Brown and C.J. Martin delivered them for us. It sure is a tremendous blessing. Thank you so much.

I will be seeing my eye doctor in Albuquerque on October 16 for a follow up. Please keep us in your prayers for traveling and the visit.

In closing, we have great gratitude to all our supporters who send monetary gifts and for all the encouragements. May the Lord continue to bless your congregation and your families. We love you all. May God bless you all in a powerful way.
