Benefits

The Bible contains God's plan of salvation. The Bible communicates righteous living. The Bible discloses who God is. The Bible reveals how to inherit eternal life and how to escape the fires of hell. Therefore, knowing what the Bible teaches is of supreme importance.

Our Bible classes are designed to help us expand our perceptions on what the Bible teaches. Alone, we each have a limited viewpoint of Scripture. When we meet and discuss God's word together, we can broaden our individual viewpoints. A proverb of Solomon puts it this way: "Iron sharpens iron, so one man sharpens another" (Proverbs 27:17).

Our Bible classes may also help us to apply the Bible's teachings in real life situations. The teacher may be able to share a personal setting in which he or she relied on the Scriptures to make the right choice. A fellow participant in the Bible class may have an experience or know of someone who followed the recommendation of Scripture at work.

Thank you for participating in our Bible classes. You are helping each one of us to better understand God's word. Your comments in group discussions help others to apply God's word in daily living.

Memory Verse: John 3:16
