Find Comfort in God

so that by two unchangeable things in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have taken refuge would have strong encouragement to take hold of the hope set before us. This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, a hope both sure and steadfast and one which enters within the veil, where Jesus has entered as a forerunner for us, having become a high priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek (Hebrews 6:18-20 NASB).

Keep On Keeping On

I love the sentiment of this title and use it a lot in my correspondence with people. I do this because we live in a very discouraging time for Christians. The world has really infiltrated the spirits of men so that many are no longer interested in God or the things of God. As a result, church attendance throughout the nation is on the decline, we are not able to interest as many people in Bible study as we once did, the nation is now moving in a direction opposing Christianity, even our own people are not getting along with one another and we hear of many church splits. It's enough to discourage anyone.

In spite of all the troubles we face, a Christian needs to persevere. In New Testament times, the church in Corinth had lots of issues, yet the apostle Paul encouraged them to never give up. He said, "Therefore my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your toil is not in vain in the Lord" (1Cor. 15:58). In the context, Paul is saying that the faithful and steadfast Christian has something wonderful to look forward to. One day all faithful brothers and sisters will be resurrected to a life of immortality. We will enjoy an eternal state of bliss with our Creator and Redeemer.

Now, if that doesn't motivate you to never give up on the Lord, I don't know what would. So, no matter what might happen... keep on keeping on... for Him!
