As Paul and Barnabas were going out, the people repeatedly begged to have these things spoken to them the next Sabbath. Now when the meeting of the synagogue had broken up, many of the Jews and the God-fearing proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, who were speaking to them and urging them to continue in the grace of God (Acts 13:42-43 NASB).

Peace

Being at peace with each other carries eternal weight. Jesus affirms that it is better to die a horrible death and be wiped from existence than to cause a fellow-believer to lose his or her salvation (Mk. 9:42). Those who refuse to seek peace are destined to burn in hell "where THEIR WORM DOES NOT DIE, AND THE FIRE IS NOT QUENCHED" (Mk. 9:44). Therefore, Jesus urges His disciples to be at peace with each other (Mk. 9:50). In addition, Jesus died to make peace between God and believers (Eph. 2:11-22). Peace is important to Jesus. What are you doing to make peace?

Paul affirms the significance of peaceful relationships. He writes to a congregation of Jews and Gentiles to be unified because Christ died to make all people who believe in Him into one new man (Eph. 2:15). He exhorts believers to seek peace with everyone even non-believers (Rom. 12:18). The apostle Paul encourages Christians to diligently preserve peace (Eph. 4:3).

Regardless of color, race, heritage, or even personal convictions, we are to persistently seek peace with each other. Satan is an enemy of peace. Our own selfishness is an enemy of peace. Let's remember the urgency which our Lord Jesus Christ places upon peace. He promises a reward that is worth the effort... "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God" (Mt. 5:9).
