And He went a little beyond them, and fell on His face and prayed, saying, "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from Me; yet not as I will, but as You will." And He came to the disciples and found them sleeping, and He said to Peter, "So, you men could not keep watch with Me for one hour? Keep watching and praying, so that you do not come into temptation; the spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak" (Matthew 26:39-41 NASB).

Wayward Wednesday

Wednesday is the day I pray for wayward believers. Many believers are not living up to their potential in Christ, while others have completely given up. I am praying for those who have been deceived by Satan and are living comfortably in sin (2Tim. 2:26). I am praying for those who believe and practice in error because of false teachers (2Cor. 12:13; Mt. 7:15). I am praying for believers who can't free themselves from human traditions (Mt. 15; Mk. 7). I am also praying for those who know the right thing to do but have harden their hearts against the gospel of God (Jas. 1:20-21).

I start with a long, humble look in the spiritual mirror which is God's word (Jas. 1:25). I am working to make personal changes in my faith, character, and practice. I pray that we will come to our senses and know the truth. I pray that God will work circumstances in our lives that will help us to see the truth, even if that means hardships. I pray that we will have the faith and courage to move into God's path of righteousness.

On Wednesday, please join me in praying for the wayward. Let's pray for God's intervention, and the wayward's willingness to repent. “My brethren, if any among you strays from the truth and one turns him back, let him know that he who turns a sinner from the error of his way will save his soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins” (James 5:19-20).
