Concerning Elders

The elders who lead well are to be considered worthy of double honor, especially those who work hard at preaching and teaching. For the Scripture says, "You shall not muzzle the ox while it is threshing," and "The laborer is worthy of his wages." Do not accept an accusation against an elder except on the basis of two or three witnesses. Those who continue in sin, rebuke in the presence of all, so that the rest also will be fearful of sinning (1 Timothy 5:17-20 NASB).

Daylight Saving Time ends next Sunday, November 7 (fall back 1 hour).

It's a Different World

Our world is truly different from that of our parents. Gone are the days of rural schools and porch sitting. Now children are pressed into an educational assembly line and porches are hidden inside, in front of the TV.

We live hard and fast. We call it "progress," but we seem to be "regressing." Crime, corruptions, and sin are increasing at alarming rates. Mistrust and isolationism are characteristic of neighborhoods.

Churches aren't what they used to be, either. Due to lack of participation, Sunday night worship and Wednesday night Bible study are falling by the wayside in big city congregations. "We just don't have time anymore," we keep saying, and yet there are still 24 hours in each day. Amounts of time have not changed... it's what we do with our time that has changed.

In the midst of his own generation's mad rush, Paul wrote to the Ephesians, "Therefore be careful how you walk, not as unwise men, but as wise, making the most of your time, because the days are evil" (5:15,16).

Let's slow down a little. Let's spend more time in fellowship and less time in watching TV. Let's readjust our schedules to include every worship assembly and every Bible study opportunity. Let's take time out of our day to encourage and uplift one another. Let's "buy back" the time that God has given us and put it to good use. We'll soon discover that there's plenty of time to get everything done that needs doing. Let's truly make it a different world.

Praying by the River

Join us at the Westland Park for praying by the river today (10.31.21) at 4:00pm.

Paul found a place of prayer by a river (Acts 16:13). John the Baptizer taught the people the will of God on the banks of the Jordan River. We might be thinking about many religious revivals which wound up baptizing believers in a river.

You might bring a lawn chair and a bottle of water. There are a few benches. Park by the playground equipment. Just past the restrooms take the trail to the left and follow the trail as it winds around to the right. The "prayer" plaza is on the left side of the trail about five minutes from the parking area.
