November 6, 2022

When it was day, the Council of elders of the people assembled, both chief priests and scribes, and they led Him away to their council chamber, saying, "If You are the Christ, tell us." But He said to them, "If I tell you, you will not believe; and if I ask a question, you will not answer. But from now on the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God." And they all said, "So You are the Son of God?" And He said to them, "You say correctly that I am." And then they said, "What further need do we have of testimony? For we have heard it ourselves from His own mouth!" (Luke 22:66-71 NASB)

Baptism

The conversions recorded in the book of Acts reveal what people did to be saved under the oversight of the apostles of Jesus Christ. These examples follow the inauguration of the new covenant of the Lord Jesus Christ. In other words, they reveal God's will for people to be saved from Pentecost until Jesus' return.

- About 3,000 people believed the gospel message, repented of their sins, and were immersed in water for the forgiveness of their sins (2:37-41).
- Men and women believed the preaching of the gospel and were baptized (8:12).
- Christ was preached to an Ethiopian man who believed Jesus Christ to be the Son of God and was immersed in water (8:36-38).
- Saul, a persecutor of the church of God, was baptized to wash away his sins (22:16).
- Non-Jewish people were baptized after hearing that everyone who believes in Jesus Christ receives the forgiveness of sins (10:43-48).
- A businesswoman was immersed after listening to Paul preach the gospel (16:14-15).
- A jailer believed the word of the Lord and was baptized (Acts 16:31-33).
- Twelve disciples of John the Baptist were immersed in the name of the Lord Jesus (19:5).

From these narratives, we learn God's plan to save all people from their sins. God offers His grace, and people receive it by obedience (hearing, believing, confessing, repenting, and being baptized). The immersion in water is the birth (Jn. 3:5). Once you are born, you begin the journey of growth and maturity in Christ (Eph. 4).

God has one plan for all people to be saved. Have you obeyed His plan? When we obey God's plan, we have confidence and peace of mind that we are saved.
