No longer drink water exclusively, but use a little wine for the sake of your stomach and your frequent ailments. The sins of some men are quite evident, going before them to judgment; for others, their sins follow after. Likewise also, deeds that are good are quite evident, and those which are otherwise cannot be concealed (1 Timothy 5:23-25 NASB).

Memory Verse

Surprising Prayer Requests

A husband prays that his wife will die first so that she will not face the hardships of living alone.

A father prays that if his children are going to fall away from Christ sometime in the future that the Lord will take them before they fall away.

A brother prays that his sibling will not find peace of mind or any success in this life until she obeys the gospel of Jesus Christ.

A mother prays that the Lord will allow her to switch places with her unfaithful children— she will spend eternity in hell while her children are comforted in heaven.

While these requests may surprise some people, these are the kinds of things the people of God do. Moses prayed for God to forgive Israel or else “please blot me out from Your book which You have written” (Ex. 32:32). Jesus gave his life to redeem disobedient people (Rom. 5:8). Paul would have exchanged places with unfaithful Jews (Rom. 9:3).

The willingness to suffer for others is strange to worldly people, but it is how the people of God live.
