Volume 25 Issue 47

November 20, 2022

Now from the sixth hour darkness fell upon all the land until the ninth hour. And Jesus cried out again with a loud voice, and gave up His spirit. And behold, the veil of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom; and the earth shook and the rocks were split. Also the tombs were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised; and coming out of the tombs after His resurrection, they entered the holy city and appeared to many. Now as for the centurion and those who were with him keeping guard over Jesus, when they saw the earthquake and the other things that were happening, they became extremely frightened and said, "Truly this was the Son of God!" (Matthew 27:45, 50-54 NASB)

Don't Give Up

No one is exempt. Every person encounters hardship and thinks about quitting. Being a Christian is not a shield against trouble. In some cases, it can make it harder to keep going when we suffer trials for doing what is right.

God teaches us to persevere because life is uncertain. He uses James to educate us: "You do not know what your life will be like tomorrow. You are just a vapor that appears for a little while and then vanishes away" (James 4:14). The brevity of life leads some people to despair and hopelessness. Others face it by seeking out unrestrained pleasure. Their motto is "Let us eat, drink, and be merry, for tomorrow we die."

As children of God, our will is secondary to God's. We live each day for God's glory, and "if the Lord wills, we will live and also do this or that" (James 4:15). Because life is short, we should focus on life in heaven. Like a runner, we should focus on the finish line and press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus (Philippians 3:14). Those who look back are not worthy of the kingdom of God (Luke 9:62).

Let us focus on the future goal of heaven. Let us move forward no matter what trials we encounter, "for momentary, light affliction is producing for us an eternal weight of glory far beyond all comprehension" (2 Corinthians 4:17).
