Philippians 3:7-11 But whatever things were gain to me, those things I have counted as loss for the sake of Christ. More than that, I count all things to be loss in view of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them but rubbish so that I may gain Christ, and may be found in Him, not having a righteousness of my own derived from the Law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which comes from God on the basis of faith, that I may know Him and the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death; in order that I may attain to the resurrection from the dead. Share Jesus.

We all want to share the Good News of Jesus better. World Bible School has simple, effective tools that let every-day Christians share Jesus with real people who want to learn. You can be an online friend for people who have enrolled on their own to study the Bible. Anyone can do it—youth, singles, families and seniors. Right now, WBS students are waiting for someone to help them. You can become a WBS study helper today at worldbibleschool.net/teach.

Gale, a WBS study helper, chose an Ethiopian man named Adera from the people waiting WBS' online student list. Adera avidly worked through his Bible lessons. Gale reviewed his auto-graded, web-based lessons and encouraged him along the way. Before long, Adera wrote that he was ready to accept Jesus as his Lord and Savior. "My dear sister, it is time for me to be baptized." Gale worked through WBS' follow up network to find a local Christian to visit Adera. Soon thereafter, Adera was baptized and attending a local church. "Sister Gale, God sent you to me. Thank you."
