Volume 27 Issue 4

January 28, 2024

It happened that as we were going to the place of prayer, a slave woman who had a spirit of divination met us, who was bringing great profit to her masters by fortune-telling. She followed Paul and us and cried out repeatedly, saying, “These men are bond-servants of the Most High God, who are proclaiming to you a way of salvation.” Now she continued doing this for many days. But Paul was greatly annoyed, and he turned and said to the spirit, “I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her!” And it came out at that very moment (Acts 16:16-18 NASB).

Words

Words are powerful. The pen is mightier than the sword. Coaches give inspiring speeches resulting in comeback wins. Wisdom says, "Pleasant words are a honeycomb, sweet to the soul and healing to the bones" (Prov. 16:24). It also reminds us that words can be harmful, "A worthless man digs up evil, while his words are like scorching fire" (Prov. 16:27). Let's take a few minutes to consider the power of our words.

Because our words have power, we should choose words which produce joy, inspire courage, and arouse enthusiasm. Paul reminds Christians to "let your speech always be with grace, seasoned, as it were, with salt, so that you may know how you should respond to each person" (Col. 4:6). Our speech should always be gracious whether toward strangers, friends, or family members.

We are accountable for our words even when they are said thoughtlessly. Jesus warns that "by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned" (Mt. 12:36-37).

We also have power to choose how we receive words from others. If we are wise, we will welcome correction: "Like and earring of gold and an ornament of fine gold is a wise reprover to a listening ear" (Prov. 25:12). Christians are quick to hear, slow to speak and slow to anger because they seek to rid themselves of sin and to be doers of God's word (Jas. 1:19ff). Even when words are intentionally hurtful, love kicks in so that we quickly forgive one another and keep no record of wrongs done to us.

Let's remember the power of our speech and that we have a defense against angry words. Peter reminds us of our Christian duty: "For, the one who desires life, to love and see good days, must keep his tongue from evil and his lips from speaking deceit" (1Pet. 3:10).
