Our Faith

Revelation 22:16-17 "I, Jesus, have sent My angel to testify to you these things for the churches. I am the root and the descendant of David, the bright morning star." The Spirit and the bride say, "Come." And let the one who hears say, "Come." And let the one who is thirsty come; let the one who wishes take the water of life without cost. (NASB)

Christmas

Christmas is a time for honoring family traditions. Soon after Thanksgiving Day, we decorate the tree according to a selected theme. The last few years it has been "Dr. Seuss." In the weeks leading up to Christmas, we watch seasonal movies and TV specials. On Christmas Day, we open gifts (one gift every hour) and eat our favorite holiday foods. These traditions have helped to create a strong family identity and unity.

There are a few things, which are not part of our traditions. We do not celebrate Christmas as the birth of Christ. Our reasoning is based on the Scriptures, for in them we do not find the date of Jesus' birth nor a command to observe it. However, we do not judge or hold in contempt those who choose to celebrate Christmas as the birth of Christ. We respect the scruples of others as the Word of God teaches in Romans 14.

We do not engage in any pagan rituals that may have been part of the ancient origin of this holiday. For us, this holiday has only modern meanings dating back to our grandparents. I do not celebrate to any god other the one true God. Christmas is not a religious holiday for us, but we rejoice that so many people are openly talking about God's love and grace. May we all respect one another's beliefs and seek to maintain the unity of the body of Christ. May we pray as the apostle Paul... "that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened, so that you will know what is the hope of His calling, what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints, and what is the surpassing greatness of His power toward us who believe" (Ephesians 1:18-19a).
