Volume 24, Issue 52

December 26, 2021

Instruct those who are rich in this present world not to be conceited or to fix their hope on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who richly supplies us with all things to enjoy. Instruct them to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous and ready to share, storing up for themselves the treasure of a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of that which is life indeed (1 Timothy 6:17-19 NASB).

Children's Change Bucket

Thank you for your generous donations to our Children's Change Bucket. We collected $872 since October 1. This will be used to fill MAGI Boxes. You are liberal givers.

Preaching Christ in 2022

The last two years have been difficult because of the coronavirus disease. The next few years are likely to be difficult because of its variants. Now is the right time to offer the real hope that comes from knowing Jesus.

January 2022 we will begin a yearlong study through the life of Christ. This is the perfect time to invite family and friends to hear about Jesus. Ask them to watch online or join us in person.

Jesus demonstrates God's love for all people and his desire to save them from evil.

Important Health Notice

Our building will be the site of three weddings in December. These weddings are for people from the Farmington community. The dates are Saturday the 18th, Friday the 24th, and Friday the 31st. Steps will be taken to sanitize the building. We are making you aware in case you might have COVID concerns and wish to worship online the Sundays following these events.

Is there any hope of having honest, open spiritual conversations?

“I want to talk about my faith, but I don't know how—and I don't have all the answers.”

“I'm afraid of coming off as pushy, judgmental, or hypocritical.”

“When I tried to bring up Jesus, it made the relationship awkward.”

If you've ever felt uncomfortable talking about your faith with people who believe differently—you're not alone. But it is possible to engage in open and honest spiritual conversations . . . without awkwardness! Jesus did this effectively, and when you learn from him, so can you.

When you look at the life and ministry of Jesus, you'll see nine different ways in which he engaged with people. These practices, or “arts,” are skills you can learn that will naturally deepen your connections with others. When spiritual conversations become an everyday reality, you'll have a front-row seat as God changes people's lives (from back cover of The 9 Arts of Spiritual Conversations by Mary Schaller & John Crilly).

Purchase the book The 9 Arts of Spiritual Conversations by Mary Schaller & John Crilly and join us on January 9 at 5:00pm for a discussion about walking alongside people who believe differently. For more information, contact Chuck, 620-282-0658.

NOTE: Start date has changed to Sunday, January 9, 2022.
