God Is With Us

I have called upon You, for You will answer me, God;
 Incline Your ear to me, hear my speech.
 God is our refuge and strength,
 A very ready help in trouble.
 Therefore we will not fear, though the earth shakes
 And the mountains slip into the heart of the sea;
 Though its waters roar and foam,
 Though the mountains quake at its swelling pride. Selah
 There is a river whose streams make the city of God happy,
 The holy dwelling places of the Most High.
 God is in the midst of her, she will not be moved;
 God will help her when morning dawns.
 The nations made an uproar, the kingdoms tottered;
 He raised His voice, the earth quaked.
 The Lord of armies is with us;
 The God of Jacob is our stronghold. Selah
 (Psalm 17:6, 46:1-7 NASB).

My Church

Jesus told Peter, “...I will build My church” (Mt. 16:18). He did not give any other name. There was no need to give His church a name. He didn't need to distinguish it from any other church.

The following expressions are commonly thought to be authorized names for the church which Jesus built. People put these statements on signs, stationary, T-shirts, and phonebooks: churches of Christ, church of God, body of Christ, church of the living God, and church of the firstborn. While each of these phrases can be found in the New Testament, none of them are intended to serve as a name. They are intended to describe what the church is and to whom it belongs.

Christians use names to distinguish themselves from other Christians with different beliefs and practices. This practice became common during the Protestant Reformation. In the 16th century, men like Martin Luther tried to reform the errant practices of the Catholic church.

Two of the main contributors to naming churches have been straying from the apostles' doctrine and failing to remain united in Christ. If Christians had continued in the apostles' teaching, the church would have remained united in the name of Christ and no other (Acts 2:42; 1 Cor. 1:10; Eph. 4:1-3).

I offer this suggestion. Think of your spiritual journey in terms of being in a relationship with Christ. We tend to think in terms of the location where we meet for worship and the beliefs which we share with others who meet there. In other words, we ought to think of ourselves as abiding in Christ rather than being a member of the group which meets in a church building. This thinking doesn't need a name other than “My church.”

Card of Thanks

God bless you

I should have written a long time ago to thank you for all the blessed thoughts and prayers that have been done for us since we have seen you.

We think of you daily and would love to hear that you keep thinking of us and keeps us in your daily prayers.

I hope you can read this. I used to have the job of all the letters but you can see why I don't anymore.

Please check your mailbox on the west side of the foyer.
