Volume 23, Issue 5

February 2, 2020

And someone came to Him and said, “Teacher, what good thing shall I do that I may obtain eternal life?” And He said to him, “Why are you asking Me about what is good? There is only One who is good; but if you wish to enter into life, keep the command-ments.” Then he said to Him, “Which ones?” And Jesus said, “You shall not commit murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; Honor your father and mother; and You shall love your neighbor as yourself.” The young man said to Him, “All these things I have kept; what am I still lacking?” Jesus said to him, “If you wish to be complete, go and sell your possessions and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me.” But when the young man heard this statement, he went away grieving; for he was one who owned much property (Matthew 19:16-22 NASB).

Please accept our deepest gratitude and greatest appreciation for your participation in the Champions for Change program. Champions for Change Cans helps us to provide for the 130 children including 39 single mothers (1 single dad) currently in our residential and single parent homes. 2019 was another record setting year for our NMCCCH services. We reached, helped, served, taught, 277 people, more than ever before.

- With your help we are filling 170 beds a night!
- With your help we are feeding, clothing and educating 50 children in our residential program, 80 children in our single parent program along with 40 single parents.
- And most importantly, with your help we are able to proclaim the gospel of Jesus Christ with these precious souls. Last year we witnessed 15 baptisms!

Thank you for your donation and thank you for partnering with us to change the lives of children and families! Thank you for being part of the solution.

Sincerely,
 Allen Mann
 Director, Public Relations
