Christian Paradoxes

I recently read an article discussing Christian paradoxes (Wes McAdams, "5 Paradoxes," radicallychristian.com). As I thought about it, I realized that there are far more than five paradoxes and that unraveling these apparent discrepancies, yields greater understanding of God and His will for us.

We are dead but alive... "Even so consider yourselves to be dead to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus" (Rom. 6:11).

Following Jesus is easy... "For My yoke is easy and My burden is light" (Mt. 11:30). But, it is also hard... "For the gate is small and the way is narrow that leads to life, and there are few who find it" (Mt. 7:14).

On the one hand, we are to be sorrowful... "Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted" (Mt. 5:4). On the other hand, we are to rejoice... "Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say rejoice" (Phil. 4:4).

Be humble... "Therefore humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you at the proper time" (1 Pet. 5:6). Yet, be confident... "in whom we have boldness and confident access through faith in Him" (Eph. 3:12).

Saved by faith and by works... "For we maintain that a man is justified by faith apart from works of the Law" (Rom. 3:28) and "You see that a man is justified by works and not by faith alone" (Jas. 2:24).

Do not practice your righteousness to be seen by men (Mt. 6:1); however, "Let your light shine before men in such a way that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in heaven" (Mt. 5:16).

At first such paradoxes seem to be conflicting and confusing. Nevertheless, we can often resolve the supposed incongruity by paying closer attention to the context and by thinking in spiritual terms rather than worldly ones. Let's embrace biblical paradoxes and dig out the deeper aspects of the Christian life.

LTC News

There will be no LTC convention this year, so also no fund raiser. We still plan to have our annual Northside Bible Bowl Challenge some Sunday in May. The book to study is Revelation. We currently have 8 kids interested. Parents, if you have a child in grade 3-12 who wants to participate, and you haven't let me know yet, please contact me! We also can use a few more adults for their team. A great website to help study is <http://ltc.theseeker.org/>.
