Volume 23, Issue 9

March 1, 2020

Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah, and Baruch wrote on a scroll at the dictation of Jeremiah all the words of the Lord which He had spoken to him. Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, "I am restricted; I cannot go into the house of the Lord. So you go and read from the scroll which you have written at my dictation the words of the Lord to the people in the Lord's house on a fast day. And also you shall read them to all the people of Judah who come from their cities. Perhaps their supplication will come before the Lord, and everyone will turn from his evil way, for great is the anger and the wrath that the Lord has pronounced against this people." (Jeremiah 36:4-7 NASB).

Love

Love reigns supreme among Christian virtues. Our Father in heaven is love (Jn. 3:16; 1 Jn. 4:8, 16). Loving one another marks us as children of God and disciples of Jesus (Eph. 5:1,2; Jn. 13:35). Loving one another is evidence of God's spirit living in us (1 Jn. 3:17). The only Christian life that matters is the one lived in love (1 Cor. 13:1-3).

Christian love is visible. It is seen when we are wronged but do not seek revenge. It reveals itself in our thoughtful deeds to benefit others. It is obvious when we are void of jealousy, boastfulness, and self-importance. We demonstrate love when we are courteous. When we do not demand our own way, we are exhibiting love. When we are slow to anger and free from grudges, love is present. We don't laugh at injustice and mischief because we celebrate people doing what is right. We don't gossip about one another's faults. We give others the benefit of the doubt and assume good motives. We joyfully and confidently wait for God. We endure the worst circumstances bravely and calmly (1 Cor. 13:4-7).

God's love is seen through His actions such as giving His Son as an atonement for our sins. When we love, we prove our desire to be like our Father.
